Monday, September 16. 1706.

from the Leiden Gazette, dated August 24.

Insprueb, August 10.

TH E Fifth of this Month the Castle of Hartenberg situated in the Province of Tirol was set on Fire by Lightning. Great Endeavours were us'd to extinguish the Fire, but in vain; and after it had burnt about an Hour it reach'd a Magazine of about 800 Quintals of Powder, which blew up the whole Castle, except a little Tower that has a Wall of extraordinary Thickness. The Noise of the Blast was so very great, that it was heard here very plainly. A Peasant's House and a Barn that were situate at the Foot of the Hill on which the said Castle of Hartenberg stands, were shaken down; and some Stones of the Castle of Fifty Pound Weight, were blown above a Quarter of a League.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated August 24.

Brussels, August 18. On Sunday last publick Prayers were began to be made in the Churches of this Place for the Emperour Joseph and for King Charles III. The Pope's Internuncio who came hither a little before the last Revolution of Affairs, has since caus'd the Arms of his Master to be put up over the Gate of his House, yet refus'd to acknowledge the present Government notwithstanding pressing Remonstrances were made to him. Upon this the Council of State of this Country, caus'd an Officer to signify to him some Days ago; that they could not acknowledge him in the Caracter he bore, and that therefore they expected he should forthwith order the Pope's Arms to be taken down. Whereupon he chose rather to depart from hence.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Aug. 31.

Letters from Hanover of the 27th of August advise, that the 25th the King of Prussia with the Prince Royal his Son arriv'd at Hernhausen; that the Elector of Hanover met them within a League of that Place, and conducted them to the Apartment that he had caus'd to be fitted up for his Prussian Majesty: That his said Majesty design'd to set out for Berlin the 28th; but that the Prince Royal would stay behind for some Time at the Court of Hanover.

From the Paris Gazette, dated August 28.

Paris, August 28. The Advices from Bolonne of the 2d of this Month, inform us that the Revenge was come in there with a Ransom of 3000 Livres for a Ship she had taken. From Calais 'tis advis'd, that Captain Villay Commander of a small Vessel mann'd with 18 Men, had taken an English Yacht carrying 12 Guns. They write from Dunkirk the 4th Instant, that 2 Ships of the Chamber of Commerce with the Triton, had taken 3 Dutch Frigates, of 20, 24, and 26, Guns, Convoy to Three Vessels laden with Pipe-staves, which they ransom'd, but brought in the Three Frigates. These Letters from Dunkirk add, that 2 of our Privateers call'd the King of Spain and the Revenge were come in thither, with 13000 Livres Ransoms for Ships they had taken; and that the Privateer call'd the Duke of Vendome had brought in a Dutch Prize laden with Herrings. 'Tis advis'd from Port Louis the 2d Instant, that the Dryade Man of War of the Chevalier de Forbin's Squadron, had brought in thither a Dutch Ship of 54 Guns, bound for the East-Indies, having on board besides Merchandize 200000 Livres in Money; and another of 18 Guns bound for the West-Indies. Those 2 Prizes are reckon'd worth above 400000 Livres. They write from Dunkirk the 17th Instant, that the Privateer call'd the Sun had ransom'd 8 Vessels, 3 English and 5 Dutch, for 15000 Livres and 72 Barrels of Herrings: And that the two Frigates of the Chamber of Commerce and the Constance, had brought in an English Frigate of 20 Guns and a Dutch Frigate of 26 Guns, laden with Provisions; valued at 45000 Livres.

London, September 16.

On Saturday came certain Advice from Calais, that the Duke of Savoy and Prince Eugene having joyn'd, had fought and totally defeated the French Army commanded by the Duke of Orleans, the 7th of September N. S. killing a great Number of the Enemy, and taking among the Prisoners several Officers of Note, particularly the Marshal de Marfin, who had receiv'd a Shot in the Thigh, which was judg'd to be mortal. The Duke of Orleans had very dangerous Contusions. The Enemy lost their Cannon and Baggage. This intire Victory was attended with the Raising of the Siege of Turin. The Marshal de Catinat is sent from the French Court to Italy, to supply the Place of the Marshal de Marfin. The 9th of September the Count de Medavi surpriz'd the Prince of Hesse, beat his advanc'd Guards, and took Six Pieces of Cannon. Dendermonde capitulated the 5th Instant, N.S. after which Aeth was besieged. They had Advice at Paris from Spain, That the Duke of Berwick was detach'd from the Duke of Anjou's Army, to cover Salamanca from any Attempts that might be made by the Forces sent that way from Portugal, and that the Earl of Galway had sent away his heavy Baggage from his Army.

On Friday Night last arriv'd a West-India Mail, which was landed by the Frankland Pacquet-Boat at Plymouth; and another on Saturday Morning, which was landed by the King William Pacquet-Boat at Leverpoole. They brought Letters which advise, that Commodore Carr with the Squadron of Men of War under his Command that sail'd from Plymouth the Beginning of May, was arriv'd at Jamaiça, and that thereupon Admiral Whetstone with all the Ships of War, except the Suffolk, sail'd from thence upon some Expedition.
